Name	Futurvucetich. Mirko Vucetich: Dal Futurismo al Novecento
Description	The exhibition FUTURVUCETICH is dedicated to the artist Mirko Vucetich, one of the most versatile figures of 1900. The exhibition organized by Mari Vucetich, an art historian, an expert on the artist and the Art Nouveau move from June 28 to September 28 for the centennial anniversary of the magazine founded by Anton Giulio Bragaglia along with Vucetich. The exhibition is curated by the same curator. The intention of the State Archives is to promote the documents preserved in the Archives. Among the documents are those of Alessandro Vucetich, brother of Mirko with the Lightning in Riccione, Achil Franceschi with whom he had a studio in Vittorio Veneto. Achil Franceschi's studies and research conducted in recent years at the State Archives (1975) through its villas in Riccione, Bologna and America, collected in "Liberty in Riccione" (Maggioli 2010), and "Romagna Liberty" (Maggioli 2010). In order to know the artist Vucetich the general public in addition to the exhibition realized a significant exhibition of this multifaceted character as a designer, sculptor, decorator, architect, poet and illustrator. The State Archives where we have compiled some projects such as the project "Lightning in Riccione" by Antolini. There is organized an exhibition of drawings and photographic images.
