Italian Liberty Photo Competition

The Italian institution "Associazione Nazionale Difesa Edifici Liberty" has launched a photo competition in which everybody is invited to take part! Theme of the photo contest is the Italian Liberty style. The competition is free and will run until October 31, 2013. So in case you plan to spend your holiday in Italy you are welcome to take part in the competition and win fabulous prizes! The only thing you need to do is register for the contest, grab your camera and take about 20 pictures of beautiful Art Nouveau buildings and objects in Italy! Participants can choose from 4 different topics: Architecture, Furniture, Painting or a theme of your own choice. Email your results to the address mentioned in the information flyer. Buona fortuna to everyone!

Click HERE for further information!

The competition is part of the project "Italia Liberty" conceived and directed by Andrea Speziali, expert scholar of the artistic "Art Nouveau" and author of several books on architecture Liberty.

The Photo Contest "Italian Liberty" is sponsored by the portal of the Cultura Italia (Ministry of Heritage and Culture), by the European project PartagePlus and ENIT National Tourism Agency.
